

PART-TIME, NON-TENURE TRACK POSITIONS

The University of Scranton is recruiting a pool of persons interested in part-time, non-tenure faculty positions in all disciplines listed below. This pool will be accessed when an opening arises. Your credentials will remain active for one year. After this time, you will need to resubmit current, updated information if you are still interested in remaining a part of the pool. Minimum qualifications are an academic degree or professional credentials in the appropriate discipline, and subject matter expertise. Prior teaching experience in the discipline is preferred. Some subject areas may also require specific certifications and levels of education, experience/training.

If you are interested in possible future openings, please send a cover letter indicating which disciplines you are interested in teaching, contact information, and curriculum vitae or resume to The University of Scranton, 800 Linden Street, Scranton, PA, 18510 Attn: Contact, (listed below). Notice will be provided to you if and when an opening occurs in the specific discipline(s) in which you have expressed interest. Notice will also be posted with the Pennsylvania Office of Employment Security and on our website at <http://academic.scranton.edu/departement/provost/>.

College of Arts & Sciences

CONTACT: NOREEN SCHOFIELD

Biology, Chemistry, Communication, Computing Sciences, English & Theatre, History, Latin American Studies, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics/Electrical Engineering, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology/Criminal Justice, Theology/Religious Studies, Women's Studies, World Languages & Cultures

Communication – Radio Production: Position needed for Spring 2011 semester. Teach radio production course. Qualifications: Hand-on radio experience. The course catalog description follows: "An examination of the dynamic industry roles of the radio producer/director. Areas to be studied include production theory and techniques that apply to station and program promotions, advertising, news, and music formats." Contact: Matthew Reavy, Ph.D., reavym2@scranton.edu. Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

Communication - Graphics: Position needed for Spring 2011 semester. Qualifications: Hand-on experience in print layout/design. The course catalog description follows: "Visual aspects of print media. Typography, printing presses, handling photos and other art layout and design, introduction to desktop publishing." Contact: Matthew Reavy, Ph.D., reavym2@scranton.edu. Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

Panuska College of Professional Studies

CONTACT: WILLIAM G. WALLICK, PH.D.

Counseling/Human Services, Education, Exercise Science & Sport, Health Administration/Human Resources, Nursing, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy

Kania School of Management

CONTACT: SHANNON SENNEFELDER

Accounting, Economics/Finance, Management/Marketing, Operations & Information Management

Scranton Education On Line (SEOL)

CONTACT: REGINA BENNETT

SEOL is an on-line program offering Masters' Degrees in Educational Administration and Curriculum and Instruction. (Experience with technology is required).

The University of Scranton is, by tradition and choice, a Catholic and Jesuit University. The successful candidate will have an understanding of and commitment to the goals of Jesuit education. The University's mission statement may be found at www.scranton.edu/mission. The University is committed to developing a diverse faculty, staff, and student body and to modeling an inclusive campus community which values the expression of differences in ways that promote excellence in teaching, learning, personal development and institutional success. In keeping with this commitment, the University welcomes individuals with diverse backgrounds to apply.